

Family Counseling Centre, Police Head Quarter, A. D. Nagar, Agartala.

A Family Counseling Centre (FCC) is functioning under supervision of Tripura Commission for Women in Police Head Quarter, A. D. Nagar, Agartala, West Tripura since 1998. Fund for functioning of the said FCC is provided by Central Social Welfare Board through State Social Welfare Board. Cases of family dispute, marital dispute etc. are counseled in the centre. The TCW often receives some application from male persons regarding marital or family problem. Counseling of these cases is also done in the centre. Three qualified counselors are appointed by the Commission for the centre.

Basic Activities of the FCC are:

1. Registration of complaints/applications submitted by male or female persons.
2. Counselling of registered family/marital dispute cases.
3. Arranging follow-up sessions for each case.
4. Home visit of applicant and respondent, if required.
5. Organizing Maholla meetings (neighbourhood meeting) to aware people on functions of the FCC.
6. Organizing awareness programme on women issues.
7. Organizing Pre-marital counseling in Schools.